3. The "Gabor Aron" Hungarian Infantry Barracks (see sketch, appendix B) are situated at Honved Utca 42, occupying an area of about 60 x 80m. On the Honved Utca and the Kert Utca sides and approximately 2m from the building there is a line of trees linked by 3 rows of barbed wire, so that civilians cannot pass. The entrance on the Honved Utca side was guarded by a sentry with dark green collar patches; on the Kert Utca side, however, the sentry has light blue collar patches. Both sentries are equipped with rifles. No particular activity was noticed either outside or inside the barracks. At one juncture a unit consisting of 8 men equipped with rifles was seen approaching the barracks.

4. There is a new Hungarian barracks on the north side of the town, east of the road leading to Sosto (see sketch, appendix A). The west side of the barracks is approximately 200m. long, but it was not possible to establish the width of it. In the barrack area three 3-story buildings, each about 50 x 10m. in area, were visible from the road. There were other buildings as well, but these could not be seen properly. No movement of soldiers was observed in the barracks, but some were seen coming from the town and going in the direction of the barracks. They had green collar patches.
